FOLLOWING the beckoning hand of the future, we, the Class of 1952, prepare to leave Concord High and go our separate ways. Though our future is uncertain, our past is sure, and full of memories we will treasure forever. As a means of keeping these memories with us in a more tangible way, this is the work our hands have wrought—the 1952 SPIDER WEB.

Mr. Frank Austin

To You, Coach - - -

We Are Grateful for . . . the training you gave us for reasoning minds and sound bodies . . . the interest you had in our problems . . . the work that you did toward producing better sports at C. H. S. . . . and the patience you have shown with our seeming lack of appreciation.

We Owe . . . the improved school spirit . . . more knowledge of the best in sportsmanship . . . our pride in our winning teams . . . the rewards of a valuable friendship.

We dedicate The 1952 Spider Web

The Student Council and the Student Assembly are two democratic bodies that make up the Student Organization of Concord High School. Its aims are to insure a spirit of democracy, to establish and maintain higher moral and scholastic standards, to give opportunity for citizenship training, and to encourage the students' participation in all school activities.

The Student Assembly sponsors events such as the Orientation program, Christmas in November, Sponsors' Night, and Clean-up Week, and it publishes the school handbook, The Web. It has sponsored dances which have been successful in helping the relations of the community and the students.

ORGANIZATION ASSEMBLY

CHEERLEADERS

Led by Sue Mauney, Chief, and under the faculty direction of Miss Laura Jean Newell, the cheerleading squad has this year been one of the most active organizations at C.H.S. Not only have they inspired the students to better school spirit, but they have sponsored dances, some of them for the purpose of acquiring funds for busses to carry students to out-of-town games, others to honor the teams and their various opponents, and some merely for entertainment. The other members of the squad are Phyllis Aycock, Assistant Chief; Mary Eleanor White, Creighton Peden, Mac MacFayden, Lamar "Buber" Hammett, and Ronald Shinn.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES I

"In the fall of the year, when school is begun, there's a time for work and a time for fun."

VARSITY FOOTBALL

First Row, left to right: Gene Hinson, Hall Furr, Roby Dorton, Eugene Powers, Kenny Austin, Jerry Frye, Larry McCall.

Second Row: Morrison Honeycutt, Louis Thomason, Jerry Kennerly, Jimmy Huntley, Phil Penninger, Bill Cochran, Douglas Kluttz.

Third Row: Ken Waddell, Rodney Morrison, Carroll Snuggs, Bernie Cook, Don Roberts, Jimmy Jackson.

The C. H. S. Spiders, under the coaching of Frank Austin, Paul Boulus, and Jack Sparks, spent about three weeks preparing for the season to start, the final week being spent at Appalachian College.

The Spiders opened the season by defeating an inexperienced Mills' Home team 13-7. The following week was expected to be a greater test for the Spiders, but they emerged from the Tech High game with an 18-7 victory. With the coaches fairly well pleased, the team coasted to an easy 25-7 win over Mooresville, a game in which the subs played the last half. Monroe, a team that Concord had not defeated in about five years, brought a strong team here but was beaten 24-0 in the best game of the Spiders' season. Mt. Airy was polished off 7-0 the next week, and then the Spiders met disaster. Wilkesboro, conference champions, beat the Spiders 7-0 in a hard fought game, characterized by penalties and hot tempers. Kannapolis, the traditional rivals of Concord, were beaten 7-6 in the most exciting game of the season, played before 3,500 spectators. The Spiders, in their greatest offensive show of the season, demolished Winecoff 32-7 and slipped by Statesville 13-12 in the next two games. The Albemarle game, which had been rained out on a previous date, was a 7-6 defeat for the Concord team. As a whole the year was very successful as the team won 8 and lost only 2 games.

The senior band, under the baton of Mr. George Peck, participates in numerous activities in the school and the community.

Throughout the football season the band furnished colorful half-time entertainment. Taking part in the Concord and the Kannapolis Christmas parades, as well as the annual Carolinas' Carrousel Parade in Charlotte, the band, with an enrollment of ninety-three members, was outstanding.

The band presented a program of Christmas music as a part of a Little Theater production and prepared appropriate music for the Easter Sunrise Service at Central Methodist Church. The final activity of the year was to furnish music for the Class Day exercises.

Although many of the personnel were inexperienced, we feel that the band has had a very successful year, and we look forward to an even finer band for next year.

Joan and Margaret collect the menus
And get them ready for us to use.

Edith and Betty keep busy at work,
And Tully prepares the yummy dessert.

Dot makes the salads,
And Doris helps too.

Then everyone comes in
To get the line through!

Dirty trays and dishes soon are done,
To Loretta and Shirley it's just fun.

Our substitutes (there are three)
Nancy, Barbara, and Dianne, you see.

Each works with a smile, a laugh, a song,
And everyone helps the other along.

These girls are swell and they give their best
To make this a fine school, our CHS.

THE TUMBLING TEAM

The Tumbling Team was first organized in 1950 by Coach Paul Boulus. The boys who were the first members of this team are now Seniors. This year these boys have been in the process of teaching beginners. The art of tumbling is based on the forward roll, flips and pyramids. Upon these basic things many acts are developed. This year the Tumbling Team has presented many programs, not only for school activities, but also for civic and social organizations. We feel that the Tumbling Team has brought a new and diversified program into the field of athletics.

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization whose motto is "Toward New Horizons." Each member strives to uphold this motto not only in high school but also throughout her life.

Each year the FHA sponsors a project. Last year and continuing into this year it has sponsored the re-decoration of the reception room. Through aid from the other clubs and a generous donation from the 1951 Senior Class we have nearly completed this project. The Concord FHA is also active in the State and District rallies held by the club.

The Ink Spots was organized to recognize outstanding artistic talent and to provide Concord High School with a permanent advertising staff.

To become a member, a student must obtain fifteen points in advertising work and be accepted by a three-fourths majority vote of members.

The club has shown wholehearted enthusiasm and co-operation this year in furnishing advertising projects to the different organizations and activities at the high school.

The Science Club is composed of freshmen and sophomores who are interested in some phase of science. Under the capable leadership of its sponsor, Mrs. Fisher, the Science Club has carried out several scientific projects, and it is conducting a Science Fair in the spring. Several programs have been presented to help stimulate a greater interest in new and various scientific fields. The permanent project of the Science Club is to beautify the school grounds. This year it has planted flowering bulbs in front of the building.

A M A T I C S

The Pan Players, the largest extra-curricular organization at Concord High School, was established here in 1932. Its primary purpose is to give club members an opportunity to participate in major productions as well as regular club programs.

During the current school year, in addition to assisting the Seniors in producing their play, the Pan Players have presented two three-act plays: Galahad Jones and the Broadway hit Life With Father. "The Roof Fell In," "Four On a Heath," and "Balcony Scene" are the one-act plays also presented.

JOURNALISM CLUB

Since its establishment in 1939 the Journalism Club has strived to publish a newspaper of the finest type for Concord High School. It affords an excellent opportunity for those interested in newspaper work and encourages creative ability among its members. The Weavings was begun by the class of 1931. This year the efficient advice of the sponsor, Mrs. Tharrington, has enabled the club to display its best works.

The Junior Class had a most successful year. They sponsored the annual magazine sale and exceeded all previous CHS records with sales going over $2,000 and over $800 was realized for the class treasury. The Florida Trip was "the thing" of the year for many members of the class. On Class Day, when they knelt to receive their caps from the Seniors, they were rewarded for their work during the year.

OUR GUIDE

We honor thee, O Concord High,
Through all the years we've loved thee.
You are our heart, our hope, our guide,
The light by which we see.
Yours is the voice of duty strong,
Of truth and education;
All down the years you've been to us
A source of inspiration.
Now as we take our separate ways
In the course that all must run,
We give to thee this last salute:
Well done, O School, well done.

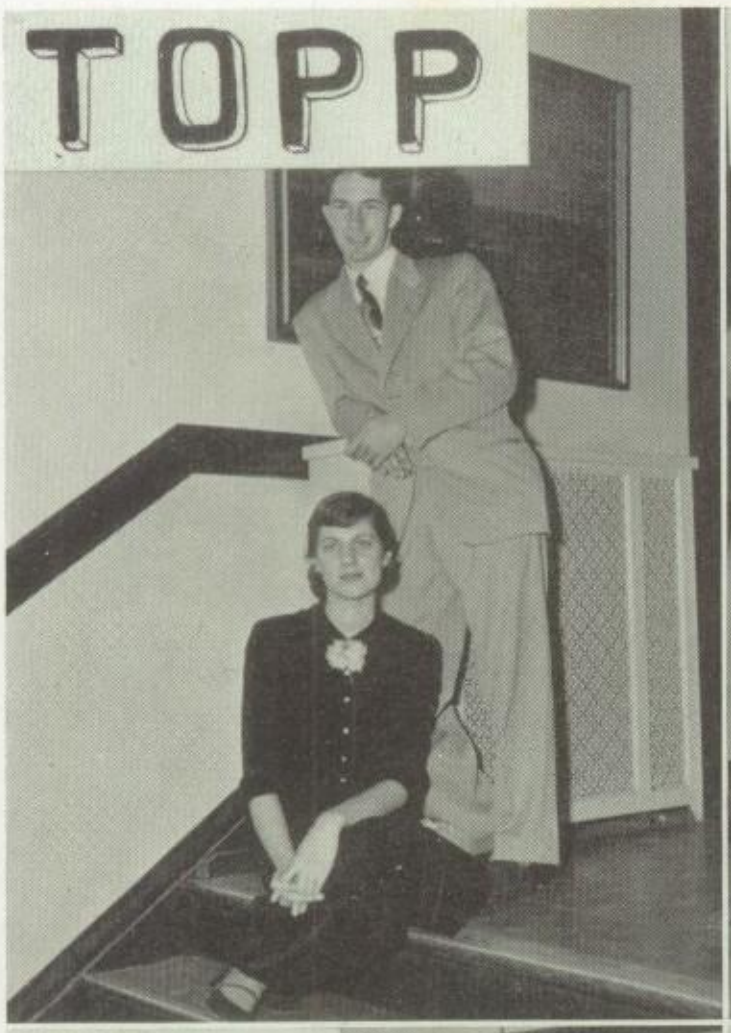
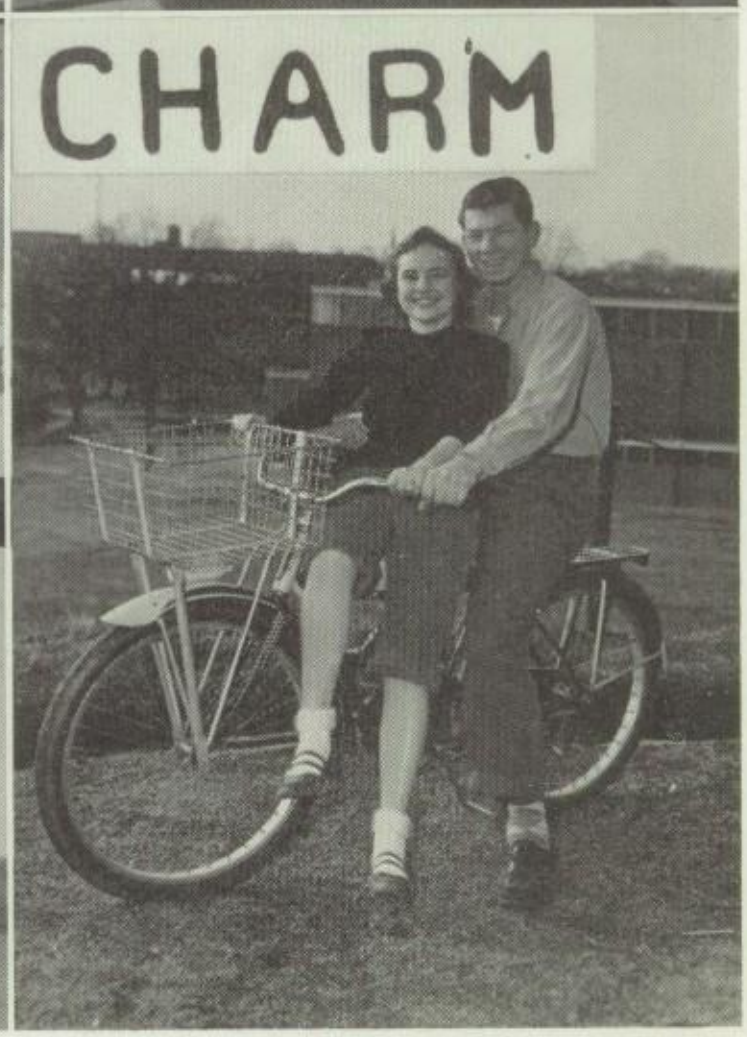
SENIOR SUPERLATIVES

Top Hands In The Class

Here're the ones as you can see,
That are tops, don't you agree?
So you may get a better VIEW,
We'll present them two by two.





Brains, ability, personality abound;
They are known as the Best All-Round.

Best All-Round:

BEDE BOB SASSER
PHIL PENNINGER

With all the seniors these two rate
Because of the way they cooperate.

Most Cooperative:

JANICE VAUGHN
JIMMY KLUTTZ

Bobo ski-ot 'n tot'n one ot'n too!
They've sure got it—these two.

Best School Spirit:

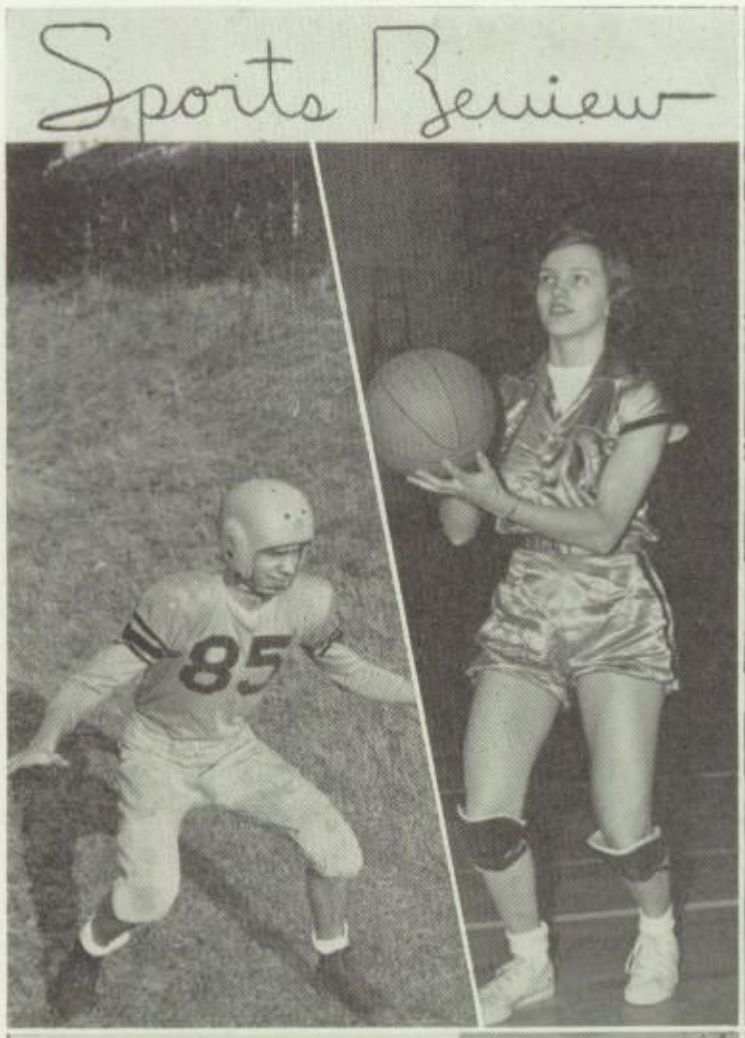
SUE MAUNEY
THOMAS NEAL HOPKINS

A friendly word and a cheery smile
Herald from these two all the while.

Friendliest:

SHIRLEY ROBBINS
ROB BOST

SUPERLATIVES



Play up, play up, and play the game;
With Concord High they've won their fame.

Best Athletes:

SALLY SCOTT
JOE WIDENHOUSE

If it's laughs you want to fill your day,
Listen to what these two have to say.

Wittiest:

ANNE DOVE PROPST
DAN BROWN

Readin', 'ritin', 'rithmetic . . .
To the three R's they strictly stick.

Most Studious:

JANICE CORZINE
EUGENE BOST

A word from their mouths does seldom leak
We hardly realize they can speak.

Quietest:

MARILYN SHEPHERD
SPRINGS McCOY

She winks at guys; he whistles at skirts.
These two are known as the Senior Class Flirts.

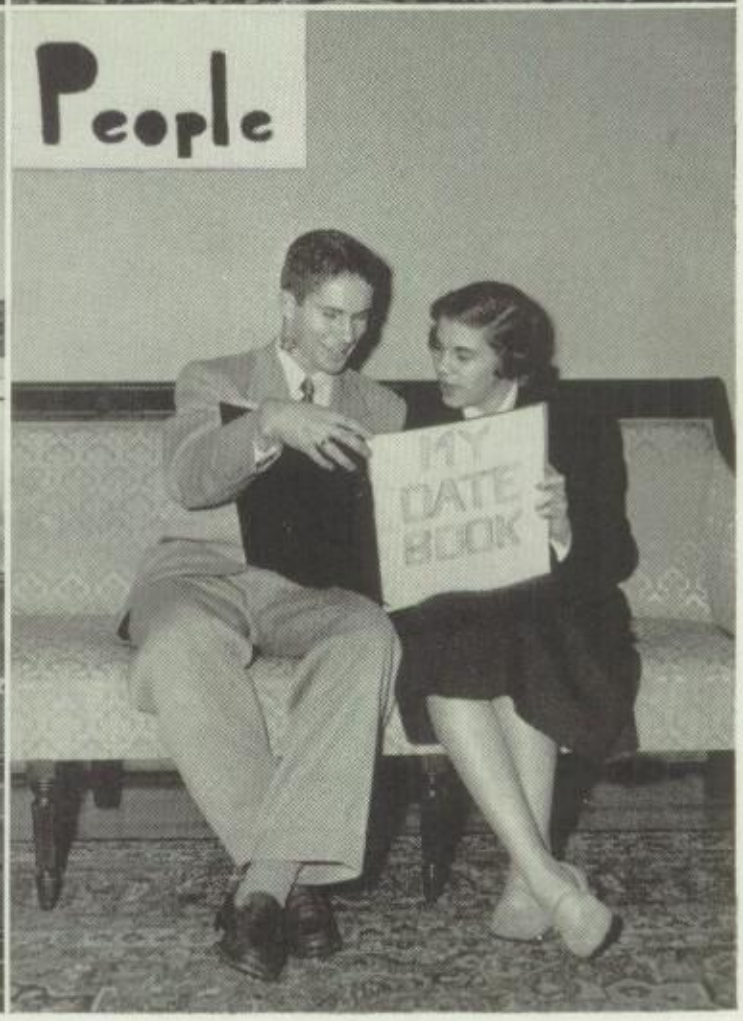
Biggest Flirts:

PHYLLIS AYCOCK
ROB BOST

Approaching the room a couple is spied,
Whom the Seniors voted most dignified.

Most Dignified:

ANN SUTHER
JAMES STONE



These two never need to boast;
Because they're always first with the most.

Most Original:

BARBARA FRYE
NORRIS BELL

The seniors like 'em and say they're best,
They're far more popular than all the rest.

Most Popular:

BETTY CATON
PHIL PENNINGER

UPERLATIVES

After viewing fellows and beauties,
We consider these our cuties.

Best Looking:
KATHRYN GRIFFIN
A. W. WIDENHOUSE

They'll get there because they try,
And none of us will wonder why.

Most Likely to Succeed:
VIOLET RUTH PUCKETT
JERRY SMITH

No more shall these figures fill the halls;
No more shall you hear their friendly calls;
No more shall their dignity and quietness reign;
Their wit and school spirit you cannot maintain.
You shall miss their co-operation and flirtatious ways,
Unmatched qualities every day.
Intangible virtues will be missing too—
Yes, you will miss the class of '52.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Section I

Article I—We, the Senior Class of 1952, do declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

Article II—To our principal, Mr. Glenn, and the faculty of Concord High School, we leave our kindest regards and our thanks for the long years of guidance and understanding.

Article III—To the Junior inmates who must remain, we leave the beautiful building, its spacious campus, its dreary classrooms, and the high standards which we have maintained under all circumstances.

Section II

I, Charles Stimson, do hereby bequeath my daredevil driving tactics to "Bobo" Wingate with hopes for fewer accidents in '53.

I, Shirley Sloop, leave my "gift of gab" to Jane Kinard and I'm sure she will take care of it.

I, Claudette Cochran, bequeath to Carol Burrage my fickle ways with the hopes that she won't get in as many jams as I did!

I, Sue Mauney, leave my cheerleader's uniform to Mary Eleanor White.

I, Joe Allen, leave dem bones to "Monk" McCall and please don't break them all.

I, Don Hopkins, bequeath to Roy Thomas my ability to walk under a low bridge.

We, Anne Suther and James Stone, leave our dignity to Carolyn Collins and Charles Miller who are both in dire need of it.

I, Norris Bell, leave my ability to answer questions that no one ever thinks of asking to Larry Williams.

I, Dan Brown, leave my good times to Sylvia Beaver.

I, Dixie Sims, leave my fiery temper to Helen Edsell, another redhead who doesn't seem to have one.

I, Alan Newton, leave my position as chief noisemaker of the Senior Class to Jimmy Lineberger who I'm sure will make use of it.

I, Floyd Lambert, leave my curly locks to Charles Barger, since I won't be needing them in the Navy.

I, Springs McCoy, leave my height and quietness to Mimie Jean Basinger, who needs both.

I, Ola Mae Greene, bequeath the names in my little black book to my sister, Veldoris.

I, Joe Warlick, leave the demerit system of the band, which I so strictly enforced, to Jimmy McGill.

I, Joe Widenhouse, leave my crew cut to Phillip Nelson.

I, Jerry Smith, leave my firm foundation, namely my big feet, to Hugh Craig.

I, Patsy McGraw, leave my freckles to Nadine Daniels, Maybe they'll combine with hers and make one solid mass.

I, Barbara Frye, leave my dependability to be distributed among the rising Senior Class, since they need it worse than I do.

I, Barbara Blaine, leave my gullability to Albert Brown.

I, Lib Poplin, leave my blond tresses to Barbara Jean Hughes so that she may throw away the peroxide bottle!

I, Shirley Robbins, leave my cheery smile and good sense of humor to Judy Greene.

We, Tecetl Rogers, Sara Anne Murr, and Barbara Talbert, leave our letter-girl uniforms to Pat Kennerly, Gail Carson, and Nancy Tucker.

We, John Canupp, Tommy Gledhill, and Troy Ellington, leave the tumbling team in the care of Morrison Brown, Bill Vassey, and Jack Sides.

I, Jean Burns, leave my southern drawl to Charlotte Ridinger.

I, Helen Shuping, leave my long hair to Peggy Burris so that she may successfully wear a pony-tail.

I, Betty Ruth Kluttz, bequeath to Bill Peden two of my good ribs since I so brutally injured his.

I, Jimmy Kluttz, leave to Paul Lentz my backstage management.

I, Pansy Faggart, leave my "nose for news" to Betty Burge.

We, Margaret Hughes and Sara Talley, leave all our spare time to Hetty Jean Whitley, assured that she can make use of it.

I, Bede Bob Sasser, leave with the hope that the Senior Class of '52 will be missed and remembered forever.

I, Mimi Morris leave . . . for Colorado.

I, Richard Savage, leave my red cap to the trophy case as proof that I got out of high school.

I, Margaret Lowder leave my modest blushes to Margaret Hennessee.

I, Richard Lapish leave my hillbilly songs to Mr. Sparks.

I, Frances Bost, leave my well-worn and leaking fountain pen to any Junior girl who thinks she can write more letters to the United States Navy than I did.

I, Betty Cathcart, leave and take with me my toils and struggles in finishing high school.

I, Iris Jean Barbee, leave my big blue eyes to Norma Jean Reese.

We, A. W. Widenhouse and Kathryn Griffin leave our good looks to be distributed among the Juniors.

I, Tully Newton leave my high spirits to Ann Krider.

I, Kathryn Gresham, leave a nickel to start a fund for an escalator to third floor.

I, Sara Sapp, leave my habit of sleeping during Bible Class to the wide awake Ruth Mann.

I, Jane Foil, leave my vast store of English notes to Carroll Snuggs.

I, Katie Peigler, leave CHS and slam the door behind me.

We, Mary Ann Thornburg and Betty Jean Jones, leave our easily turned giggle boxes to Patsy Ann Moore and Jean Allen.

I, Anne Misenheimer, bequeath my deepest sympathy to that hapless Junior who falls heir to the hectic job of Pictorial Editor of the Spider Web.

I, Phil Penninger, leave to Johnny Barnhardt my ability to do most anything.

I, Margaret Anne Drye, leave my constant anxiety over my studies to "Lum" Edwards.

I, Kathy Hopkins, leave my sophisticated air to Pat Helms.

I, Darlene Moore, leave my comb to the girls' basketball team, since I always had to supply it anyway.

I, Betty Caton, leave my ability to ask intelligent questions to my sister, Dottie.

I, Bill Baker, leave my curiosity to Jerry Frye.

I, Max Harris, leave my desk in algebra class equipped with a bottle of Nervine.

I, Jerry Kennerly, leave, still believing in Santa Claus.

I, Jane Whitener, leave CHS slowly and nonchalantly as usual.

I, Sally Scott, leave my basketball prowess to Sybil Burleyson in order that she keep up my high scoring.

I, Janis Vaughn, leave my poise and leadership to Phyllis Kiser.

I, June Tucker, leave my Latin translations to Margaret Biggers.

I, Phyllis Aycock, leave my petite attractiveness to my little sister, Donna.

I, Thomas N. Hopkins, leave my bottle of Hadacol to Preston Faggart, since I already have so much excess energy.

I, Louis Thomason leave my favorite saying "give me a drag" to anyone who can use it as much as I do.

I, Rob Bost, leave to Dink Jordan my baseball ability knowing he will improve immediately.

I, Violet Ruth Puckett leave my vocal chords to the CHS rooting section, so that the school spirit may survive next year.

I, Bob Hendly, leave my long, curly eyelashes to Jerry Calloway, because I blush everytime they are mentioned.

I, Thomas Young Hopkins, leave the jokes that I have entertained the Art Class with this year to Gerald Talbert.

I, Shirley Poole, leave my job as cafeteria assistant to Margaret Sherrill.

We, Billy Mack Cruse and Frances Hatley, leave our neat appearance to Dot Helms and Bruce Barnhardt.

We, Barbara Smith and Viola Carriker, leave our thoughtfulness to Ruth Leigh and Frances Haywood.

I, Lee Chaney, leave my job as chorus pianist to Sue Patterson.

I, Marilyn Shepherd, leave my poetical talent to the class poet of '53.

I, Karen Harrison, leave my secret of having curly hair on a rainy day to June Bonds—wear a scarf!

I, Bill Campion, leave my well worn text books to Bobby Black since they are too abused for much more use.

I, Bill Cochran, leave my two front teeth to Jimmy Jackson, just in case he loses a few in football next year.

We, Mary McCants and Carolyn Beaver, leave our helpfulness to Rita Bunn and Shirley Drye.

I, Roy Christenbury, leave my ability to keep the Bible Class entertained to Anne Howard.

I, Anne Dove Propst, leave my corny jokes to anyone who has the ears to take it.

I, Gene Hinson, leave, owing the fun I have had during my Senior year to Pam Brafford.

I, Bill Collins, leave my blank expressions to Eugene Powers.

I, William Johnson, leave my position as chief window fixer in Miss Gabriel's room to any industrious Junior.

We, June Freeze and Helen Melchor, leave our worries over bookkeeping to next year's class, as if they won't have enough of their own.

I, Bill Long, leave my indifferent attitude to Jadie Metcalfe, who I am sure can conquer it.

I, Ruth Nance, leave the other half of my room to my sister, Barbara.

I, George McCormac, leave my love of bird-hunting to anyone who isn't afraid of buckshots.

I, E. C. Morris, leave my good naturedness to Claude Sapp.

We, Elaine Allen and Rose Kluttz, leave our reserved manner to Janet Ketner and Norma Harris.

I, Jimmy Weddington, leave my cousin Marion my subtle flirtatious ways—just to keep them in the family.

I, Eugene Bost, leave my abundant talents, especially my artistic ones to the entire student body, since there is too much for one person.

I, Peggy Puckett, leave my ability to get married before graduation to Dell Blanchard.

We, Peggy Taylor and Patsy Beasly, leave CHS, as thoughtful and unselfish as ever.

I, Ancy Hoover, CHS's own Dorothy Dix, leave the girls wondering who to tell their problems to now.

I, Billy Joe Bennett, leave my accent and love of Charleston to anyone who would like to have it.

I, John L. Smith, leave CHS to make all the noise I want to.

I, Janice Corzine, leave my A's in everything to Sally Caton, as if she needs them.

We, Frances Smith and Bill Trull, leave a "no trespassing" sign on "Dink" and Sara Nancy.

I, Joe Miller, leave a little of my width in exchange for a little of someone's height.

I, Judson Faggart, leave CHS and take the memories of all my illness with me.

In witness hereof, we, the Senior Class of '52 do hereby set our sign and seal to this our Last Will and Testament on the Fifteenth day of February in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty two.

CLASS HISTORY

We, gathered here in our caps and gowns, are participating in our final activities as members of the Class of 1952. We shall gather again but once—then the Class of 1952 shall lose its reality, its personality and become merely a means of identifying its members. It is fitting then that on this occasion we publicly record its life and growth in a chronological history of this—the Class of 1952.

1946—September 7—198 seventh graders enter CHS as the Class of 1952.

1947—April 16-19—22 seventh graders make a pilgrimage to Washington, D. C.

1948—March 23—110 eighth graders tour Raleigh, Durham, and Chapel Hill.

May 5—Jane Foil, Barbara Frye, and Joe Widenhouse star in the operetta, "Windmills of Holland", presented by the entire eighth grade.

October 27—Junior Dramatics Club organized exclusively for the freshmen, is headed by Helen Melchor, Janis Vaughn, and Bede Bob Sasser.

1949—March 21-26—Phil Penninger, A. W. Widenhouse, Jerry Smith, Jerry Kennerly and Joe Allen lead Concord's team to the Junior County Basketball Championship.

September 19—Janis Vaughn is installed as Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Body.

1950—April 26—Men's faculty basketball team suffers a 53-40 defeat at the hands of the Sophomore boys, intramural champions.

September 10—In annual ceremonies Janis Vaughn and Rob Bost are installed as CHS Vice-Presidents.

September 22—Jerry Smith is elected to head the Juniors with the aid of Joe Warlick, Vice-President, Violet Ruth Puckett, Secretary, and Phil Penninger, Treasurer.

March 27-31—Florida is invaded by 62 Junior tourists.

May 31—121 Juniors thrill to the stirring words, "Rise, Seniors", after they have been capped in the annual Class Day Exercises.

1951—September 4—112 Seniors begin their last year at CHS.

September 6—The Seniors choose Phil Penninger to serve as President, Bill Cochran, Vice-president, Shirley Robbins, Secretary, and Janis Vaughn, Treasurer.

September 7—The opening of the football season finds chief cheerleader Sue Mauney leading the yells as she has been doing for five years.

September 13—Student-body President, Norris Bell, is installed.

September 20—The Annual Staff, headed by Barbara Frye and Bede Bob Sasser, begins work on '52 Annual.

October 9—After weeks of eager waiting, Seniors finally receive class rings.

November 16—The end of the football season finds eight first string Seniors, A. W. Widenhouse, Joe Allen, Jerry Smith, Bill Cochran, Phil Penninger, Gene Hinson, Joe Widenhouse, and Lewis Thomason, graduating from the best Spider team in years.

1952—February 25—After winning all but two of their games the girls' basketball team, led by all conference forward Sally Scott, takes second place in conference championship.

May 31—Last gathering of the Class of 1952 for graduation.

This is the history of the Class of 1952. We, as members, are proud to have had part in making it a reality. Even though we must leave and take our places in society, we shall always remember the fun and good times we had at CHS. We shall cherish these memories because they are an important part of us. They have passed now, but they shall live in us as long as we live.

PROPHECY

Good Evening, Mr. and Mrs. North Carolina, and all the bouyant crafts on the Pee Dee River, this is Waldo Windshield bringing you a few facts on what's happened to who since '52.

Helen Shuping has just been elected president of the National Box Office Clerks Union by a small majority over Ola Mae Greene. Sarah Sapp and Patsy Beasley are glad they have retired so they can "ticket" easy.

Tommy Gledhill, Floyd Lambert, Thomas Young Hopkins, John Canupp, and Troy Ellington are members of the "Flying Five Tumbling Act", which is the feature attraction of the Sealtest TV Circus.

Charlie Stimson and John L. Smith are co-owners of the S. and S. Unreliable Construction Co.

Joe Warlick is the new ambassador to Canada for the Civil Air Patrol.

Violet Ruth Puckett and Pansy Faggart are co-editors of the newspaper, "The Locust Level Daily News."

Gene Hinson is the naval commander of the Roberta Submarine Base, where Billy Mac Cruse and William Johnson are training to be radar mechanics. Billy Joe Bennett and Joe Miller are on permanent KP there.

Rob Bost has taken Yogi Berra's place as catcher for the New York Yankees and holds the title of "Ugliest Man in Baseball." Also in the baseball world, Joe Widenhouse plays first base, Jerry Smith is pitching, and Richard Lapish is utility man for the Derita Roosters.

Betty Caton was recently the star in the opera, "How I Lived Seventeen Days On Paprika While Lost In the Mexican Jungles." Shirley Robbins, Barbara Frye, Barbara Smith, and Kathryn Griffin were supporting players.

Springs McCoy, Alan Newton, and Billy Baker are carrying sandwich signs for the Curly Cue Beauty Shoppe where Viola Carriker, Mary McCants, and Rose Kluttz are employed.

Richard Savage and Phyllis Aycock have opened a school to teach higher algebra to retired geniuses.

Eugene Bost and Barbara Talbert are running an art school to teach mentally deficient children to draw stick figures.

Max Harris, Katie Peigler, and Tully Newton are employed by the Gruesome Gorilla radio program to provide the weird laughs.

Peggy Puckett is doing well as the new circulation manager for the "Charlotte Observer."

Lee Chaney has just written a concerto entitled, "A Quarter of a Dozen Mice With Perfectly Good Eyesight."

Bill Campion feels immortal since he went to West Point because he believes old soldiers never die.

Dan Brown is now a member of the United States Senate. He just introduced a bill to change the United States flag to Confederate Gray.

Elaine Allen, Barbara Blain, Margaret Hughes, Peggy Taylor and Karen Harrison are nurses at a home for retired contestants in the Pillsbury cooking contest. This home is owned and operated by Betty Cathcart and Margaret Lowder.

Ruth Nance and Patsy McGraw have their own television show entitled "Muttice and Jeffrine."

Miriam Morris, Lib Poplin, and Helen Melchor have just been selected as three of the ten best dressed women in Iredell County.

Jean Burns, Kathy Hopkins, and Tecetl Rogers are now models for the Thomas Neal Hopkins Co., makers of clothes of the highest character.

Janice Corzine and Shirley Poole have just produced a theory on the problem of why a round ball won't coincide with a square hole.

Margaret Anne Drye and Marilyn Shepherd are the new winners of the Odell Free Style Square Dancing Contest.

Anne Misenheimer, since the death of the late Hedda Hopper, is the foremost lady critic and columnist in Hollywood.

George McCormac and E. C. Morris are on a safari to explore the wild regions around South Buffalo Creek.

Jimmy Kluttz and Bill Cochran, prominent architects, have just designed the first house with no visible entrance. Their first model was sold to Roy Christenbury, well-known racing celebrity, who finds it convenient to keep away autograph hounds.

Bill Collins is doing nothing and says he likes this best of all.

Anne Dove Propst, alias "Red Propst", is Tide's new TV comedianne. Dixie Sims is her stand-in.

Bob Hendley and Don Hopkins are promoters for Jerry Kennerly Inc., new cowboy idol of millions of kids. Employed as the company's office force are Carolyn Beaver, Mary Ann Thornburg, and Claudette Cochran.

Judson Faggart is doing well as a blues singer at the Copa Banana Night Club, which is run by Jimmy Weddington and Bill Trull.

A. W. Widenhouse is the new star in "Cyrano De Bergerac" with Bede Bob Sasser as Roxanne.

Shirley Sloop, famous gambling queen from Reno, Nevada, recently toured the southern part of Cabarrus County. James Stone, her press agent, feels this will increase her chances in Hollywood.

Frances Bost is the new World Champion Lady Wrestler. She attributes her success to Doris Richardson, her trainer, and Betty Jean Jones, her manager.

Sara Anne Murr and Jane Whitener are the new lady members of the police force at Stanfield, where Norris Bell is the mayor.

Iris Jean Barbee, Katherine Gresham, and Frances Hatley are waitresses at the very exclusive Ptomaine Tavern, which Louis Thomason runs with Joe Allen as his partner.

Anne Suther is teaching French in the same night school in which Jane Foil teaches American history.

June Tucker and Janis Vaughn are now both happily married. Their children attend Phil Penninger's Kindergarten, which offers a special course on "How to Prepare Yourself For Grammar School."

Sue Mauney has just completed a book entitled How to Be a Cheerleader for Six Consecutive Years.

Bill Long now owns Honest William's Used Car Lot.

June Freeze is doing well as the owner of the Flowery Florist Shoppe where Sarah Talley and Frances Smith are her able assistants.

Darlene Moore and Sally Scott are basketball coaches for the Watt's Crossroads Volunteers.

Mary Anne Hoover is very successful modeling nylon stockings in New York.

Betty Ruth Kluttz is a well known authority on budgeting and has just completed a book entitled, How to Budget Your Household Expenses Although Broke.

And there you have it, Ladies and Gentlemen, what has happened to the class of '52. And now, this is Waldo Windshield signing off for station C. H. S. '52.

SALUTATORY

The Value of Time

The class of '52 welcomes you, our parents, teachers, and friends. You are here tonight to see us reach our goal—graduation. We have been working toward this goal for twelve years.

During these years many of us have used our time wisely, while others have wasted these golden moments of opportunity. In future years, we shall remember these years and regret the time that we wasted. There is one thing that we shall never regret and that is the time we spent studying and learning to become better Americans.

It is said that when Queen Elizabeth was dying, she offered her kingdom to anyone who could give her a moment of time; but there was no one who could grant her request. You and I have thousands of these moments. Let us not throw them away, but use them to the best of our ability.

Let us think of a minute and all that it may mean. Out of this minute you may invent something new, present the world with some new, wonderful idea, or discover some great piece of knowledge. On the other hand, you may throw it away, thereby wasting this precious, most valuable time.

When we think of time, we should also think of a poem written by the great English writer, Thomas Carlyle. This is what it says:

"So here hath been dawning another blue day;
Think, wilt thou let it slip useless away?
Out of Eternity this new day is born
Into Eternity a night doth return.
Behold it aforetime no eyes ever did;
So soon it forever from all eyes is hid.
Here hath been dawning another blue day;
Think, wilt thou let it slip useless away?"

MARGARET ANNE DRYE

VALEDICTORY

"Each Bears His Own Destiny"

The question of fate on destiny is a vague, obscure one which appeals to the imagination and the intellect. The Senior Class, therefore, showed deep insight in selecting "We bear each one our own destinies" as its motto.

Knowing that destiny's greatest rewards are reaped by the most conscientious workers, we must strengthen our bodies, our minds, and our characters in order to face the world. This cold, angry world which awaits our faltering footsteps into adulthood seethes in war and distrust. Yet, this same world offers greater challenges and opportunities than ever before. History is being made daily; who knows but that we ourselves may help make this history?

We should envision for ourselves a goal which cannot be reached—a standard of perfection. Thus we would always have an inducement to strive for greater things, not to accept the world without improvement. Our lives would take on a new meaning. Unsatisfied with the mediocre or commonplace, we would strive to raise the world and its inhabitants above the common crest. A life spent in servitude for humanity realizes greater rewards and assumes a deeper meaning.

To achieve perfection in our destinies, we must have a clean mind in a clean body. We must learn to stoop but not to fall, and to discern good from evil regardless of the disguises evil may assume. Our bodies must not be harmed by evil influences or our minds, by hate and prejudice. Accept each man for his worth, each deed for its merit and we shall create for ourselves a sublime destiny.

Now as we prepare to say farewell to our school, our comrades, our teachers, our established habits and to make our advent into the world, we can receive a great inspiration from Hosiah Royce's words:

"You, at this moment have the honor to belong to a generation whose lips are touched by fire . . . The human race now passes thru one of its great crises. New ideas, new issues—a new call for men to carry on the work of righteousness, of charity, of patience and of loyalty—all these things have come and are daily coming to you.

"When you are old—however memory brings back this moment to your minds, let it be able to say to you: That was a great moment. It was the beginning of a new era . . . This world in its crisis called for volunteers, for men of faith in life, of patience in service, of courage, and of insight. I responded to the call however I could. I volunteered to give myself to my master—the cause of humane and brave living. I studied, I loved, I labored, unsparingly and hopefully, to be worthy of my generation."

Hail To Our Concord

Schools days are over;
These happy years never return.
We will remember each lesson that we have learned.
We leave our books now,
And journey to life anew.
Here's to our high school—
We'll always love you.

Hail to ole Concord.
Within our hearts memories of you
Will live forever, and guide our paths all life through.
Friendship and honor
You taught us to love and esteem.
For you ole Concord,
We'll follow the gleam.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES III

BASEBALL TEAM

The team of '51 at CHS was a rather inexperienced group of boys, but under the fine coaching of Mr. Austin they achieved an eight won—six lost record. Because of the fact that only two boys were lost through graduation Coach Austin hoped that the team of '52 will better last year's record.

FORENSIC CLUB

The Forensic Club was formed in 1947. It now has 114 members. Its purpose is to stimulate interest in all types of oral expression.

The club entered the State Triangular Debate Contests last year and reached the state finals in Chapel Hill. The American Legion Oratorical Contest was won in Cabarrus County by a Concord contestant. The club sent delegates to student congresses at Duke University and Asheville, North Carolina, and to speech meets in Greenville, North Carolina.

The Eighth Grade Speaking Contest is sponsored by the club as is the Radio WEGO show—"Teen Age Hit Parade."

BAND

CHORUS

As there are "B-squads" in sports who will someday make up the Varsity Teams, so there are the junior organizations in the music fields, training themselves now to take over the senior band and chorus in years to come. Both the Junior Band and Chorus are under the direction of Mr. George Peck.

The National Forensic League, an honorary organization to recognize outstanding ability in speech, was organized at Concord High School in 1950 with the granting of its charter. At present the organization has twenty members.

Membership is based on a point system which recognizes leadership, perseverance, and interest in several phases of speech activity. The League emblem is a silver key, jeweled to indicate the various degrees of honor which may be attained. These advanced degrees are the Degree of Honor, 50 points; Degree of Excellence, 100 points; Degree of Distinction, 200 points.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll, international honorary society for high school journalists, was organized in Concord High School in 1942. Its purpose is the encouragement and rewarding of the individual student for outstanding work in journalism and allied fields. Juniors, seniors, and post-graduates in the upper third of their class who have done superior work in editing, writing, or business management are eligible for membership.

The motto of the society is "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."
